

House Resolution No. 111

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State groups which are dedicated to furthering the educational opportunities of children and youth in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, quality elementary and secondary education is the foundation for future societal accomplishments in all fields of endeavor; and

Whereas, school boards are the elected bodies tasked with overseeing local educational programs, curricula, and facilities, and the administrators, certificated instructors, and ancillary and special staffers who structure the daily activities and opportunities available to their young charges; and

Whereas, the Waynesville R-VI School District Board directs the MSIP Accredited public schools located in a portion of Pulaski County with an assessed valuation of more than $112 million dollars; and

Whereas, composed of seven elementary schools, two middle schools, a regional technical school, and one high school facility, the Waynesville R-VI School District utilizes the skills, knowledge, and experience of more than four hundred certificated staff to provide an excellent education for more than five thousand students; and

Whereas, headed by Michael Rouse as President, the Waynesville R-VI School District Board is justifiably proud of the expertise demonstrated in the activities of Superintendent Ed Musgrove, the central office team, and Principals Duane O'Riley, Joe Petrich, Jess Grizzell, Richard Wells, David Lawson, Sandra Hines, Lelar Corbett, Michael Morriss, and Debora Houchens; and

Whereas, the Waynesville R-VI School District Board will meet in public session on Monday, January 27, 2003, to commemorate the School Board Recognition Month proclaimed by various local officials and the School Board Recognition Week proclaimed by state Governor Bob Holden:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the officers and members of the Waynesville R-VI School District Board and to convey to them this legislative body's most heartfelt commendation during this time of local and statewide School Board Recognition; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the Waynesville R-VI School District Board.
